Letter From the Director

Happy New Year Everybody! Thank goodness we live where we do with all the glories nature has to offer. If it wasn't for the ability to read, garden and walk outside in our mountain air, I would have gone stir crazy this past year. These colder months bring joy with opportunities to play in the snow, curl up with a movie or try a new recipe. The library can help with most of these activities; come in and see.

The new Youth Room is done! We reused shelving, furniture and of course, books, etc., but everything else is new. Please make an appointment and come enjoy it. There are still no toys or puzzles but we look forward to warmer days bringing us up to full potential. On to the adult space. We're replacing deteriorated HVAC on the main floor, renovating the front door and moving the circulation desk. The desk move and the new doors will give everyone unobstructed entrance into the library including patrons with walking aides, pushing strollers or just an armload of books. The exterior door has already been replaced with pushbutton opening. The interior door along with the rest of the work will begin in the spring. Bear with us, we know the past year hasn't been easy but it's all necessary work and should give us clear sailing for a couple of decades. We should soon have more good news about funding for our phased renovations.

I'd like to take this opportunity to say thank you to our Board of Trustees for their ongoing support and tireless service. This year we say farewell to two longtime members who are entering their well-deserved retirements. Laurie Ronayne has given us the benefits of her experience for over 30 years, just amazing. Cathy DelBianco gave us almost 20. We simply cannot thank them enough and of course, wish them the best.

As always, our staff continues to broaden their horizons to bring innovative materials and programming to our residents whether it be virtual or actual. We invite you to take advantage of all we offer. Our library may not be nature made but we are so proud to be here in Greenwood Lake.

My wishes for health and happiness in 2021,

Jill Cronin,
Director
