ARTICLE VI - MEETINGS

- A. Regular Board meetings shall be held in the library on the third Thursday of the month, at a time to be published at least one (1) week in advance. There will be at least three (3) meetings per year adhering to this schedule. By law, the Board must convene a minimum of six (6) times per year.
- B. The Annual Meeting (budget vote and trustee election) of the Greenwood Lake Public Library will be held the third Thursday of May from Noon-8 pm at the Library.
- C. The Annual Reorganization Meeting of the Board of Trustees must be held on the third Thursday in July according to State law, unless it is a legal holiday, in which case the meeting will be held on the fourth Thursday in July.
- D. Special meetings, workshops or executive sessions may be called at the request of the President, Vice-President or three (3) members of the Board.
- E. At any meeting or workshops called for the transaction of special business, the object of the meeting shall be clearly stated in the notice of such meeting.
- F. Meetings and workshops shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of order.
- G. A majority of the full Board is necessary for a quorum. A majority is three (3) members.
- H. It shall be the responsibility of each board member to notify the President or the secretary to the Board if unable to attend a regular or special meeting or workshop.
- I. All meetings and workshops of the Board shall be open to the public except for Executive Sessions. Individuals wishing to address the Board must complete the "Public Comments Sign-In Sheet" and be recognized by the Board President. After identifying themselves, speakers will make comments as briefly as the subject permits: three minutes or less. The Board President may interrupt or terminate an individual's statement when it is too lengthy, personally directed, abusive, obscene or irrelevant. In addition, the Board President may extend the time limit for a particular speaker. The Library Board will listen to public comments and may ask questions for clarification, but will not engage in discussion or debate. If there is a need for response from the Board, it may come at a later time.
- J. In the event "extraordinary circumstances" (i.e.: extreme weather, public health crisis, malfunction of building systems, construction projects, etc.) prevent the Library from remaining open to the public, the Board may elect to meet via video conferencing. This announcement must be posted as early as possible at all entrances to the building and on Library media site(s), providing information as to how the public may access the meeting. This access will be limited to viewing and hearing the proceedings; the right to participate will be limited to the members of the Board and Library Administrators.

ARTICLE VII - COMMITTEES

The President may appoint such other committees as the business of the Board may require from time to time. Each committee shall consist of no more than two (2) Board members and may include non-Board members. The President, at the Annual Reorganization Meeting, shall appoint committee chairpersons. All standing committee terms shall expire immediately prior to the annual reorganization meeting. All committees are non-dictum.
